MUD LITERARY PRIZE FUND

MUD LITERARY CLUB is an independent not-for-profit association which manages, amongst other activities, the MUD Literary Prize to support emerging writers in Australia.

The MUD Literary Prize is open to debut Australian writers who have had their first literary fiction novel published the year preceding the presentation of the prize at Adelaide Writers' Week.

The prize is judged by a panel consisting members of the MUD Literary Club, a representative from Adelaide Writers' Week and a published Australian writer. Currently, a cash prize of $3,000 is awarded annually with the aim to grow this amount in future years.

In agreement with the Adelaide Festival and Foundation Adelaide Festival, supporters of the MUD Literary Prize are able to make a tax-deductible donation through Foundation Adelaide Festival by completing and returning this form.
